

Martin Luther King Jr. Day

Digital Interactive Worksheet • Grades 3–5

Digital Worksheet Instructions:

-  Type your responses directly in the text boxes provided
-  Select options by clicking radio buttons or rating scales
-  Write in complete sentences and use proper grammar
-  Your work is automatically saved every 30 seconds
-  Track your progress with the bar above
-  Click "Submit Final Answers" when you complete all questions

1

Explain why Martin Luther King Jr. is considered one of the most important leaders in American history.

Write a detailed response using specific examples...

Words: 0

2

Read this quote and answer the question below:

"Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."

What do you think Dr. King meant by this statement? Explain in your own words.

Provide a thoughtful interpretation...

Words: 0

3

Dr. King believed in nonviolent protest. Why do you think he chose this method instead of violence?

Explain your reasoning with evidence...

Words: 0

4

Which of the following best describes the main goal of the Civil Rights Movement?

☐ To ensure equal rights and treatment for all people regardless of race

☐ To create separate but equal facilities for different races

☐ To encourage people to move to different parts of the country

☐ To change the Constitution to remove all amendments

5

Describe a specific situation in your school or community where people are not being treated fairly. What could be done to address this issue?

Identify the problem and propose a solution...

Words: 0

6

Rate how important you think these values were to Dr. King's work (1 = Not Important, 5 = Very Important):

Equality:

1

2

3

4

5

Peaceful Protest:

1

2

3

4

5

7

How are the issues Dr. King fought for still relevant today? Provide at least two specific examples.

Give concrete examples from current events or society...

Words: 0

8

What does "character" mean when Dr. King said people should be judged by their character?

-- Select the best answer --

9

Write a personal pledge describing specific actions you will take to honor Dr. King's legacy and continue his work for equality and justice.

Begin with 'I pledge to...' and be specific about your commitments...

Words: 0

10

If Dr. King could see America today, what do you think he would say? What would he be proud of? What would he still want to change?

Consider both progress made and challenges that remain...

Words: 0